

Preservation of Cultural Heritage

Pera Palace Hotel recognizes the protection of cultural heritage as a fundamental responsibility, in line with its rich history and the cultural significance of its surroundings. In all our operations, we are committed to preserving historical, cultural, and architectural values for future generations.

Respect for Cultural Values

With full awareness of its historical identity, Pera Palace Hotel is committed to avoiding any activity that may harm cultural heritage. Both our employees and guests are encouraged to act with respect toward the cultural elements within the hotel and its surrounding environment.

We kindly ask our guests to:

- Treat historical and architectural features with care,
- Avoid behaviors that may damage cultural assets,
- Adopt a respectful and responsible approach during their visit.

Legal Compliance and Responsibilities

Pera Palace Hotel fully complies with all applicable laws and regulations regarding the protection of cultural heritage. In particular, the hotel operates in accordance with Law No. 2863 on the Protection of Cultural and Natural Assets, as well as relevant decisions issued by authorized institutions.

All renovation, maintenance, or restoration activities carried out within the hotel are conducted with the necessary permits and in cooperation with the relevant authorities.

The Role of Our Employees

All employees at Pera Palace Hotel:

- Participate in cultural heritage awareness and training programs,
- Report any potential risks or non-compliance to management,
- Demonstrate a respectful and responsible service approach toward cultural values.

The preservation of cultural heritage is regarded as a shared responsibility throughout the hotel.

Awareness and Communication

Our efforts to preserve cultural heritage are supported through:

- Informative content and digital materials for guests,
- Regular training programs for employees,
- Ongoing communication with relevant stakeholders and authorities.

This approach forms an integral part of our sustainable tourism philosophy.

For Future Generations

Cultural heritage is a shared value that connects the past with the future. At Pera Palace Hotel, we are committed to protecting and sustaining this heritage for generations to come.
